Keep up to date with all news and nominations on our Facebook page HERE or click this logo.

Early Bird Nominations are OPEN:

“Early Bird” nominations opened on Tuesday, and we welcome our first entry. Rogue from the CYCSA is a Hanse 430e. This is a new boat to our regatta and we welcome Stephen O’Brien and his crew to the KOG family.

Crew information:

As unbelievable as it sounds, some crew have the impression that a few skippers leave them a bit in the dark regarding meals, regatta clothing and other important information about the KOG regatta.

Of course, we do not believe this.

HOWEVER – an easy solution is to let your crew, media team, boat maintenance group, sponsors, family, sailmakers, sport psychologists and sports scientists know that all KOG emails are posted to our KOG website. HERE.

This should take the pressure off skippers.

Meals:

We are in the process of finalising catering options with Port Vincent sporting and service groups. We hope meal bookings will be available on the website in early November. HERE. We expect to have our usual marquee options with a welcome “Meet the Fleet” BBQ presented by the local Coast Guard on Friday night.

Saturday night is the always popular meal at the Port Vincent Sailing Club.

Sunday is the BBQ on the lawn of the marina with a gourmet range of salads available in the marquee. You will have to cook your own supplies of meat on the 6 supplied BBQ's.

Monday is the Presentation night at the bowls club. This is yet to be confirmed.

Saturday and Sunday mornings are renowned for the hot breakfasts in the marquee, cooked again by our friends at the Coast Guard. You do not have to do any cooking at this regatta.

Regatta Shirts:

We have a range of 3 long sleeved sailing shirts and one short sleeved shirt. These will be available in a wide range of sizes in the fabulous "cool dry" materials at a cost of $43.00 / shirt. Your orders will be available at the passage race briefing at the RSAYS or at Port Vincent in the marina marquee during the regatta. Please note that these are unisex fittings with the 2XS fitting being equivalent to ladies 10 and the XS size equivalent to Ladies size 12. ORDER HERE
